Palm Springs, CA (PRWeb via PR Web Direct) March 28, 2006– DPPPRESS (www.dpppress.com) and DigitalPulp Publishing (www.digitalpulppublishing.com), a year-old ePublishing company, are continuing to grow their online bookstore.

New authors, independent publishers, and small presses are contracting with DPP daily, helping to create a bookstore that offers an eclectic array of literary offerings.

Foremost Press is committed to publishing great books of fiction and non-fiction in both hard copy and in electronic formats. They are currently offering eighteen various eBook titles and genres for sale through the DPPstore.

If you want to hunker down with a good detective or thriller novel, there are enough to keep you reading one a month all year long, four of which are by author David Chacko: A Long Way From Eden, Less Than a Shadow, and Like a Man.

Five more titles to keep you on the edge of your seat are by Bob McElwain: Blackmail, Lethal Wind, Strike Terror, Take the Shot, and Those That Betray. While The Papyrus Document by Michael Cole, Mugged in Marseilles by Colby Derek James, and Nick Taddeo's August in the Mind also offer up three action-packed volumes.

Nick Taddeo's Tinnemaha Creek is also available, falling under the genre of contemporary fiction, and Growing Up Mostly Normal in the Middle of Nowhere by John Sheirer is a memoir that stands out as a beautifully written account of a mostly happy, mostly normal, fully real life at once both ordinary and extraordinary.

Rounding out this week's offerings are David R. Williams Killer Asylum, a tale of horror, and three sci-fi/fantasy novels: Reality Check by Ron Tarrant, Vector by Stephen J. Schrader, and Ken Mason's Riley.

The DPPstore offers eBooks from first-time authors to well-established experts. There is definitely something for everyone: Romance, Sci-fi, Detective and Action Novels, Poetry, Self-Help, Personal Travel Stories, Business, and much more.
